

COURSE DEVELOPMENT PROCEDURE

Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

- (1) This Procedure:
- sets out the processes and responsibilities for new course developments and approvals by implementing the requirements of the Course Design, Development and Review Policy; and
 - applies to all courses and all staff.

Section 2 - Definitions

- (2) As set out in the Definitions Policy.

Section 3 - Procedure

- (3) The Dean and Heads of Department are responsible for course development projects and have a quality assurance oversight role.
- (4) For all new courses:
- the key stages of development and approval are set out below; and
 - the indicative timelines are set out at Section 4; noting that where proposals are resubmitted (to incorporate amendments requested by the CEO, the Board of Directors or Academic Board), the relevant Head of Department must ensure the stated timeframe can be met.
- (5) At each stage of the approval pathway, the relevant approval authority may:
- approve;
 - not approve;
 - seek further information about;
 - seek amendments to; or
 - otherwise defer consideration of;
- the submission.

Step One – Preliminary Proposal Development

- (6) The Head of Department (or delegate), in consultation with the Dean is responsible for developing the Preliminary Proposal for the proposed new course.
- (7) The prescribed template (New Course Preliminary Proposal) must be used for preparing a brief Preliminary Proposal, incorporating the following information:
- course type and rationale;
 - overview of scope, sequence and content;
 - comparable offerings in Australia;
 - key distinguishing features;
 - market demand;

- f. development timeline (see Section 4 for an indicative timeline); and
- g. input from the profession.

Step Two – Preliminary approvals

- (8) The Head of Department:
 - a. presents the Preliminary Proposal to the CEO; and
 - b. where accepted by the CEO, then completes a Business Case analysis on the prescribed template (New Course Proposal – Business Case). This analysis will include an assessment of:
 - i. market demand by State;
 - ii. comparable offerings at other Australian providers, including structure and content;
 - iii. projected enrolment numbers;
 - iv. staffing requirements including continuing and new;
 - v. facilities and resources required, including library and electronic resources; and
 - vi. financial viability of the proposed course through financial projections.

Step three – Preliminary funding approval

- (9) The CEO submits the Preliminary Proposal and the Business Case to the Board of Directors for initial approval and a preliminary commitment to funding (Funding Approval).

Step four – Academic Board Approval and Timeline for Course Development

- (10) Upon obtaining the relevant approvals in steps one to three, the Head of Department (or delegate) will present the Preliminary Proposal and the Business Case to the Academic Board for Development Approval. This submission will include a timeline for course development.
- (11) On approval from Academic Board, the timeline for course development will become effective.

Step five – Project Management

- (12) On approval from Academic Board, the CEO will assign the Head of Department (or delegate) to form a Working Group of relevant staff members to fully scope and develop the course.
- (13) The Working Group is responsible, in consultation with the Dean, for developing and implementing a project management plan and methodology that:
 - a. includes a project timetable with specified milestones and deliverables;
 - b. incorporates the requirements of relevant College policies and procedures;
 - c. provides for input as required – academic and key support and administrative services, students, alumni and external stakeholders;
 - d. addresses external accreditation and professional body registration requirements;
 - e. ensures the College strategic priorities are given due consideration;

- f. ensures that resource implications are addressed in parallel with academic developments;
- g. itemises the documents required for the approval process including policies and formal agreements; and
- h. outlines the arrangements for implementing the course or changes to an existing course, such as transition arrangements and subject equivalencies.

Step Six – Course Design and Input

- (14) The Working Group, in developing the new course for approval and accreditation, is responsible for developing a fully scoped and developed proposal, with input from the Course Advisory Committee and the External Expert. The prescribed template (Course Design) includes the following information:
- a. Market demand;
 - b. Sector benchmarking;
 - c. Course structure;
 - d. Projected enrolments;
 - e. Projected staffing needs;
 - f. Proposed admission requirements / hurdles;
 - g. Proposed facilities and resourcing needs; and
 - h. Financial viability.

Course Advisory Committee

- (15) A Course Advisory Committee will be formed for each course (or an existing committee tasked with responsibility), to provide input to the Working Group and monitor the course once accredited.
- (16) The role of the Course Advisory Committee is to:
- a. advise the Working Group on course development and review – including reviewing the proposed course structure and unit outlines;
 - b. ensure the course fulfils professional norms and registration requirements;
 - c. ensure that changes in social context and knowledge in the field are taken into the account; and
 - d. provide external advice concerning trends and developments.

External Expert and Compliance

- (17) The College will:
- a. engage an External Expert, approved by Academic Board, to provide an independent review about the proposed course; and
 - b. submit the External Expert's report as part of the formal submission to TEQSA for accreditation.
- (18) The Working Group will:
- a. respond to the External Expert's report and make recommended changes;

- b. submit the course structure and unit outlines to the Course Advisory Committee for its endorsement; and
 - c. submit the application to the Compliance team for a compliance review.
- (19) The Compliance team is responsible for completing the final submission with relevant appendices as the submission will be presented to TEQSA.

Step Seven – Final Approval by Academic Board

- (20) The Academic Board will rigorously review all aspects of the TEQSA submission, including the course structure and the detailed Unit outlines, for the purpose of:
- a. approving the course(s) for submission to TEQSA;
 - b. requesting amendments; or
 - c. rejecting the submission.
- (21) Where Academic Board requests amendments within a specified timeframe, the Working Group must meet this timeframe in order to ensure the submission is lodged with TEQSA by the required date.

Step Eight – TEQSA Approval processes

- (22) The College will lodge the submission with TEQSA following final approval of the completed course and all relevant documentation by Academic Board.
- (23) Any final changes based on Academic Board feedback will be made by the Compliance team for approval by the Chair of Academic Board and the CEO prior to lodgement with TEQSA.
- (24) The College is responsible for lodging its application with TEQSA for initial course accreditation no less than nine months prior to the proposed first offering.
- (25) Any feedback by TEQSA will be considered and incorporated into the course throughout the accreditation process or immediately following accreditation through the internal governance review processes.
- (26) The CEO will inform relevant parties, including the Board of Directors and Academic Board, of TEQSA's determination in relation to the submission.

Step Nine – Other External Processes

- (27) The relevant Department will provide the Compliance and Marketing team with:
- a. information on entry requirements; and
 - b. statements for the College Prospectus, Course Guides, Student Handbook and other publications as required.
- (28) The Compliance and Finance teams and the Registry are responsible for preparing relevant documents such as:

- a. Professional or registering bodies (in conjunction with the TEQSA approval process or after if required);
- b. Centrelink approval;
- c. Commonwealth HELP approval;
- d. CRICOS approval (including registration on PRISMS; and
- e. Tuition Assurance Arrangements through College Agreements.

(29) The College may commence marketing and student recruitment activities once final approval has been received from TEQSA.
